

Rapid Response Security Ltd

Modern Slavery Statement

This statement is made pursuant to s.54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps that Rapid Response Security Ltd has taken and is continuing to take to ensure that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain.

Modern slavery encompasses slavery, servitude, human trafficking and forced labour. Rapid Response Security Ltd has a zero tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all business dealings and to putting effective systems and controls in place to safeguard against any form of modern slavery taking place within the business or our supply chain.

Our business

Rapid Response Security Ltd is a family owned business and operates primarily in the security industry where its customer base includes Local government engineering and construction and facilities management sectors.

We have operated across Wales and England for 18 years and are at the forefront of tsecurity guarding.

Our policies

We operate a number of internal policies to ensure that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. These include:

1. Equal Opportunities & Diversity Policy : this policy aims to remove unfair and discriminatory practices within Rapid Response Security Ltd and to encourage full contribution from its diverse community .
2. Anti-slavery policy : This policy sets out the organisation's stance on modern slavery and explains how employees can identify any instances of this and where they can go for help.
3. Recruitment policy: We operate a robust recruitment policy, including conducting eligibility to work in the UK checks for all employees to safeguard against human trafficking or individuals being forced to work against their will.

4. Harassment & Bullying Policy : Rapid Response Security Ltd wishes to provide a stimulating and supportive working environment which will enable all its employees to fulfil their personal potential and creativity .
5. Whistleblowing policy : We operate a whistleblowing policy so that all employees know that they can raise concerns about how colleagues are being treated, or practices within our business or supply chain, without fear of reprisals.
6. Code of business conduct : This code explains the manner in which we behave as an organisation and how we expect our employees and suppliers to act.]

Our suppliers

Rapid Response Security Ltd operates a supplier policy and maintains a preferred supplier list. We conduct due diligence on all suppliers before allowing them to become a preferred supplier. This due diligence includes an online search to ensure that particular organisation has never been convicted of offenses relating to modern slavery [and on site audits which include a review of working conditions]. Our anti-slavery policy forms part of our contract with all suppliers and they are required to confirm that no part of their business operations contradicts this policy.

In addition to the above, as part of our contract with suppliers, we require that they confirm to us that:

1. They have taken steps to eradicate modern slavery within their business
2. They hold their own suppliers to account over modern slavery
3. They pay their employees at least the national minimum wage / national living wage (as appropriate)
4. We may terminate the contract at any time should any instances of modern slavery come to light]

Training

We regularly conduct training for our procurement/buying teams so that they understand the signs of modern slavery and what to do if they suspect that it is taking place within our supply chain.

Our performance indicators

We will know the effectiveness of the steps that we are taking to ensure that slavery and/or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain if:

- No reports are received from employees, the public, or law enforcement agencies to indicate that modern slavery practices have been identified.
